SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

LIFE MAGAZINE VISITS LUCEDALE, MISSISSIPPI, JULY 4, 1960

Lucedale was honored this week to have the editors of Life Magazine visit our charming town. Among the prominent citizens that appeared in a recent Life publication were:

Sylvia Crosnatra (Jensia Allman), song bird of the air, was in Lucedale visiting her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Pascal Gill and their four sons of Perkinston Junior College spent the holidays with Lucedale friends. Mr. Gill is employed as janitor at the college. Mrs. Gill will be remembered as the former Rubina Aeppli.

Life's feature editor congratulated Burns Gunter, world famous auto parts manufacturer, on his recovery. We hope Mrs. Gunter (nee Edna Jo Bristow) will heed the doctor's advice and avoid hitting Burns in that same spot again.

Mr. Jimmy Carnley and Mrs. Jimmy Carnley (nee Catherine Bates), who finished high school together at L. H. S. (Lonely Heart School), announce that they have a green plymouth for sale. They regret to part with anything so filled with memories, but Junior insists that they buy a new car.

The Life's editors visited the delinquent children's home, which is supervised by Miss Jean Barnette. She seems to understand the children's ways. Says Miss Barnette, 'Experience is the best teacher.'

John Thomas Caldwell, Voted by the Navy Department the 'Wolf Most Likely to Succeed', is getting a divorce from Lana Turner to marry Miss Jean Lambert.

Jackie Calhoun Lassiter finds it necessary to give up her career as a Power's model. Mr. Lassiter, her husband, insists that it's time that he sees more of her. Hmmm!

Evelyn Counselman, the best dressed woman in America, is home after visiting Count Toastandcoffee Eggsandbacon, whom she plans to marry in the near future.

Lucedale is very proud of Carlton Eckhoff, who, through well-earned promotions, has recently become Secretary of Treasury, U. S. A. Carlton says his success is due to his former Bookkeeping teacher, Mrs. Barnard.

Pal Fryfogle was down for the holidays looking for a place to live. Pal is now Chief Administrator for the Veterans Housing Administration. Last year he built 100,000 new homes.

Sam Hilderbrand, Navy football coach, is here for the holidays. When asked how Navy's team was progressing, he said, 'Next year I plan to beat Army, as one of Lucedale's 1947 star players, Jimmy Berry, is coming to the Academy.'

Boyce Keyes, famous editor of the comic strip 'Shirley's Young Life', is visiting in Lucedale now. When asked how he ever thought of the name for his strip, he replied, 'It dates back to good old school days. It was the real thing then.'

Miss Ruth Anne Lamb, secretary for Mr. U. O. Gigglehumor, owner of the Lonely Heart Club, was visiting in Lucedale the other day and reported that hearts were still lonely, and that there was more than met the eye in catching a man. She knew!

Helen Marie Howell, star of Vassar's basketball team, was accompanied home by the president of the College, Thomas A. Larrimore. When asked how it felt to be president of a famous girl's college, President Larrimore replied with a long, low whistle, and then added, 'Shorts are the very thing for campus smartness.'

Mr. Tommy Manville expressed his regrets that Miss Fredna McBay, Miss Red-Head of 1954, was leaving his employment. He confessed that Miss McBay had led him to believe that she wanted to be his 10,954th wife.

Mr. Dewey McMurphy, head of the Investigating Committee on 'Why Richard Won't Open That Door,' was in town with his secretary, Miss Shirley Spencer. When asked how the case was advancing, he said, 'The d--- thing is still shut.'

Thurman Howell announced at the 4th of July program that after much persuading he would run against Bilbo for Senator.

Mrs. Arthella Mallett Cornstalk and her two lovely daughters passed through Lucedale on Tuesday of this week on their way to join Mr. Cornstalk in San Francisco, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terrill Kirkwood are the very proud parents of quintuplets. Mr. Kirkwood made the statement that it was really more than he expected. Mrs. Kirkwood was formerly Miss Janet Williamson.

Etoile Shotts, thrice divorced, honored us at the end of the 4th of the program with two songs, Oh, What It Seemed To Be, and It's All Over Now.

CLASS WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1947, do make, publish and declare this is our last will and testament.

To the faculty, we bequeath appreciation for a task well done.

To the Juniors, our unworthy, but rightful heirs we leave our most prized possessions, our privileges as Seniors (including the right to sell cokes) and our ability to cooperate and to be agreeable at all times.

To the Sophomores, our respectful friends, we bequeath our best wishes and good luck in the future.

To the Freshmen of both '47 and '48, we extend our sympathy, for we know the road seems long and hard. Then too, we leave our ability to take charge as we did, but not to take the privileges we did.

And, now we come to the individual, but more important bequeaths:

Rubina Aeppli leaves her ability to get along with her teachers to Joyce Havard.

Jensia Allman and Arthella Mallett bequeath their masculine attraction power to Frances Evans and Lurline Moody.

Jean Barnette leaves her musical talents to G. W. Howell.

Catherine Bates wills her blonde hair to Amarylus McBay.

Edna Jo Bristow leaves her ability to get along with everyone to her sister, Sue.

John Thomas Caldwell wills his extra typing paper to the future typing classes.

Jackie Calhoun leaves her friendliness to Doris Myrick.

Jimmy Carnley wills a book entitled, 'How to Love and Be Loved' to J. J. Broome.

Evelyn Counselman leaves her vocal talents to Jackie Bryan.

Carlton Eckhoff bequeaths a book on how to make good grades to Eldridge Byrd.

Pal Fryfogle leaves his ability to skip school to W. C. Woodard.

Sam Hilderbrand just wants to leave.

Helen Marie Howell leaves her vim, vigor and vitality to Neal Cochran.

Thurmas Howell wills his extra pounds to Dorothy Goff.

Boyce Keyes leaves his cuteness to Agnes Hathorn.

Robert Kirkwood leaves a bottle of aspirin tablets for the future book-keeping classes.

Ruth Anne Lamb bequeaths her extra dates to Beth Hatcher.

Thomas Larrimore leaves his generosity to Jack Miller.

Fredna McBay leaves her trim-neatness to Jeannine Stinson.

Dewey McMurphy wills his special talents to the president of the Senior Class of 1948.

Etoile Shotts bequeaths all her nice ways to her sister, Johnnie.

Shirley Spencer wills, with pleasure, her position as editor of the annual to anyone wanting it.

Janet Williamson sorrowfully leaves W. C. Woodard.

Signed, published and declared by the above named, as their last will and testament. Witnessed by our dearly beloved Coach and Sponsor, Mr. Clifton S. Wade.

To those who have aided us in the publication of the 'Lucedalian' by their direct efforts or indirect influence, we take this feeble means of expressing our sincere thanks.

We are especially indebted to the following: To Mr. Parker for the splendid pictures he made for us. To Myers & Company for the suggestions, patience and the care and attention they have shown our book. To the business concerns for the interest they have shown in our activities. To Mr. W. G. Brown for reading and correcting proof. To our Superintendent, Sponsor and every member of the faculty and student body who stood by us loyally.

Fellow student, if we have pleased you we are highly pleased, and if we have not, remember we have done our best.
